

Paul Sartori

Partner

psartori@allionpartners.com
T / +61 (8) 9216 7139
M / +61 (0) 407 066 927

allionpartners.com

Paul has particular expertise in public and private mergers and acquisitions, equity capital markets, shareholder investor arrangements and general corporate advisory.

Paul has considerable experience in advising on and managing large international and domestic corporate transactions, including deal structuring, due diligence, document preparation and contract negotiation.

Examples of transactions include:

- Acting for Norwest Minerals on its IPO and ASX listing;
- Acting for private enterprise in relation to numerous acquisitions in the early childhood care sector.
- Acting for a WA university in its partnership with a private education provider to deliver offshore training programmes;
- Acting for Gulf Manganese Corporation Limited on a A$15m funding package;
- Acting for Azumah Resources on the earn-in investment by Ibaera Capital into its WA Gold Project in Ghana;
- Acting for Energy Developments on its acquisition of a remote area power generation business from Wesfarmers;
- Acting for management on a management buy-out of a local high-end residential and commercial property builder and developer;
- Acting for Iron Mountain Inc. on the reorganisation of its global business structure following its acquisition of ASX listed Recall Holdings Limited;
- Acting for NASDAQ listed Tetra Tech Inc. on its acquisition of Proteus EPCM Engineers;
- Acting for Aurox Resources on its takeover by scheme of arrangement by Atlas Iron;
- Acting for Jabiru Metals on its takeover by Independence Group;
- Acting for Clough on its proportional takeover of Forge Group;
- Advising on a 'top-hat' scheme of arrangement for the restructure of a private multinational corporate group, headquartered in Australia;
- Acting for Edith Cowan University on its joint venture with Navitas Limited to form Edith Cowan College;
- Acting for Ingenious Capital on its investment into the Merredin Solar Farm project; and
- Acting for various ASX listed companies and private companies with respect to employee incentive schemes.

Prior to joining Allion, Paul established and led the PwC Perth legal team for 5 years and previous to that was Special Counsel at Ashurst in Perth and a Partner in the London office of global law firm, Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner.